Advance Women Globally

- Advancing women means something different to all of us all over the world
- In Nepal, it's about feeding the family
- In Brazil, it's about the status of women within society
- In the US, it ranges from leading smaller financial institutions and increasing the number of billion dollar CEOs, to diversity in the boardroom and creating opportunities for emerging leaders
- Our Sister Societies, all over the world, are responding to these issues in their respective local communities
